Euclidean distance between representations